The Mon Valley Providers Council (MVPC), in collaboration with individuals, families, and groups in the Mon Valley, will define and address mutual issues and needs. Building upon the providers and communities, the Mon Valley Providers Council will promote programs and develop resources for collective action.

Who We Are: The Mon Valley Providers Council (MVPC), a program of the Human Services Center, is an alliance of human service and related organizations, which are based in or serve the communities in the Mon Valley. The MVPC serves as a formal network for information and resource exchange among human service providers in the Mon Valley. The MVPC involves its member organizations in Workgroups which address crucial issues in the Mon Valley in the area of Employment and Training, Housing, Health, and Violence. These Workgroups involve the participation of over 70 diverse-serving members and over 250 staff members of those organizations. Through these standing Workgroups, the MVPC promotes cooperation, coordination, and collaboration among its member and participating organizations in an effort to fill gaps in human services in the Mon Valley communities.
